Join Esprit and its special celebrity guests at Bravo! for a casual evening of diverse musical performances featuring legendary singer-songwriter Murray McLauchlan and cellist Shauna Rolston - quickly becoming one of Canada's most celebrated musicians. At this unique "cross-over" event you will hear songs from Murray's latest disc Gulliver's Taxi, specially arranged for string quartet and cello, plus a selection of classical music for cello and piano, and cello and string quartet. Murray and Shauna are joined by the popular young ensemble Metro String Quartet and leading pianist Lydia Wong.

These rare and intimate live performances will be simultaneously transmitted on monitors throughout the Bravo! space - so mingle, meet celebrity guests and enjoy!

Esprit Orchestra

Alex Pauk

Music Director and Conductor

Esprit is Canada's only full-size orchestra devoted to commissioning and performing new orchestral music - over 70% of which is by Canadian composers. 1997/98 is Esprit's fifteenth anniversary season. Esprit has commissioned over 40 new works by over 35 composers.

"There isn't another orchestra with a concert-by-concert record approaching that of Toronto's Esprit Orchestra in the propagation of Canadian music."

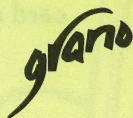

William Littler

The Toronto Star, March 31, 1996

Esprit gratefully acknowledges the following for their generous support of this event:
